So once Curtis and I were driving across the city and we were moving truckloads and I was stopped at a stop beep at me and say "hey!" and Curtis leaned out the window and said,:

"hey you, it's okay!"

I KNEW it!

In days of old and lands of Scott English Muff doth conquer Twat
I dismiss your manic hightops Something black came out of me!

thank GOD for peggy lee

I used to sit around all day and play with teacups
Sometimes I'd look in the mirror and think that I'm a monkey.. Nooo...
I never thought that I'd end up in such velvet handcuffs.. Yeah
When I look back to those days, goll dang it was tuff
But now I wake up each mornin' circumcised by moonbeams
I think I'm feeling naughty, let's fuckin' Lick some Butt la la la laaa

thank god for peggy lee
