1. Sunday Stroll

Janie says she's a sucker for daffodils in December it doesn't make much fuckin sense to me pondscum manifestation of a worthless waste of protoplasm somehow he'd shaped himself into a human hunched over the trashcan like a foul hyena his proclivity for disgustingness made passers-by retch what more could we expect from a Sunday afternoon stroll in the fuckin park?

Mays - singer, guitar
Dickey - bass, drums

2. Skaapatada

<assorted scat>

Mays - singer
Dickey - guitar, bass, drums

3. Why Should He Care?

he never hears a thing on Monday he never sees a thing on Tuesday there's nobody there he never feels a thing on Wednesday
why should he care?
he never feels the way you do in his room full of mirrors a faceless man built of tears I'm out of tune like the rest of you but at least I'm plugged in he never feels a thing all week until you walk through that door why should he care?

why should he care at all about you?
why should he care?

when I was 16, I had a very good year when I was 14, I lost my virginity in there let me tell you somethin' when I mix a drink I mean every fuckin' word I say don't look at me crosseyed that's no way to act in front of a lady that's one hell of a way to act in front of a lady
don't look at me crosseyed that's no way to treat a lady!
don't look at me crosseyed
